

Sunshine Coast Gourmet Getaway 3 Days / 2 Nights

Experience a perfectly balanced getaway by combining a luxury B&B on the water or a quiet Cottage in the woods combined with exquisite and unique gourmet dining. Excite your taste buds with the culinary skills of renowned chefs and relax for a night in a fascinating setting with outstanding service.

Day 1

Your journey begins with a scenic 40 minute ferry ride aboard BC Ferries from Horseshoe Bay to Langdale. You will cruise through a breathtakingly beautiful passage studded by emerald islands. Upon arrival, meander along scenic Marine Drive to the seaside town of Gibsons and begin your culinary experience with lunch at one of the Sunshine Coast's hidden gems, Smitty's Oyster House. This once tired, forgotten marine repair shop has been transformed into one of BC's most memorable eateries. Nestled on the shoreline of Gibsons Harbour, next to one of Canada's few remaining working wharfs; watch the halibut and crab trawlers unload their catch, as your taste buds are heightened with local wares and delicious BC wines.

Next, take a stroll along the harbour trail, take a boat tour, or discover one of the many unique shops Gibsons has to offer.

This evening, delight your palette with a prix fixe meal or an elaborate chefs tasting menu while enjoying an amazing oceanview at Chasters Restaurant. Visit the wine cellar with over 1,000 choices from our local BC wineries such as Burrowing Owl and the creme de le creme of Australia's Penfolds Grange.

Day 2

On summer Saturday mornings, visit the Sechelt Farmer's Market where you'll find a variety of fresh produce picked fresh that morning, plus jams, fresh baked breads & goodies, just to name a few. Pick up items along the way for your gourmet picnic lunch to savour later in the day.

After the market, travel to Smuggler Cove, for a hike to view its' maze of rock faces, sand flats, rocky nooks and mini bays. Take in incredible panoramic views including Welcome Passage, Thormanby & Texada Islands. The trail will take you across mossy bluffs with Arbutus, Pine, Cedar and Fir trees where you're sure to find the perfect place to enjoy your picnic lunch.

Tonight, your dining experience will have you watching the sunset over Malaspina Strait in the relaxing and comfortable atmosphere of the Rockwater Secret Cove Resort. The Rockwater has gained a strong reputation for dining excellence on the Sunshine Coast. Chef Ben Andrew and his culinary team will prepare you a delicious menu of West Coast offerings, using the best of British Columbia's ingredients from the land and ocean.

Day 3

Immerse your self in the scenery as you embark on a leisurely boat ride through the sheltered waters of Porpoise Bay. Mermaid Boat Tours invites you aboard their 25 ft luxury pontoon boat. You'll enjoy up close views of such wildlife as sea lions, seals, birds and possibly the friendly and entertaining, White Sided Dolphins.

Upon your return, you'll begin to make your way toward Langdale in preparation for your ferry trip home. Enroute, take time to stop at Davis Bay for a walk along the seawall and enjoy a latte at one of our cozy coffee shops as you watch the sun set over the Georgia Strait and, till next time, bid the Sunshine Coast goodbye.
